The Honorable Gene Dodaro
Comptroller General of the United States
U.S. Government Accountability Office
441 G. Street, NW
Washington, DC 20548

Dear Mr. Dodaro:

We are writing to request that the Government Accountability Office (GAO) review how Executive Branch departments and agencies have addressed the findings and recommendations of the Commission on Wartime Contracting in Iraq and Afghanistan (Commission).

Since releasing its second interim report in February 2011, the Commission has issued three reports. On March 1, 2011 the Commission issued Special Report 4: Iraq – A Forgotten Mission?, and on June 3, 2011, the Commission issued Special Report 5: Sustainability: Hidden Costs Risk New Waste. On August 31, 2011, the Commission issued its final report to Congress, entitled Transforming Wartime Contracting: Controlling Costs, Reducing Risks.

In these reports, the Commission found a number of systemic failures in contingency contract planning, execution, and oversight within government. The Commission also made recommendations to address needed structural changes within departments and agencies as well as procedural changes to contracting practices throughout government.¹

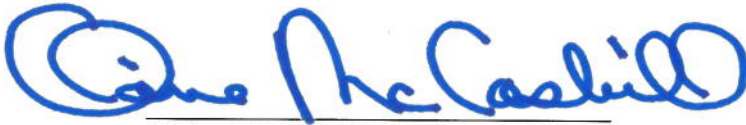

To better understand the degree to which the Defense Department, State Department, and USAID have responded to the Commission's work, we request that GAO assess actions taken by the departments in response to the findings and applicable recommendations in the three above referenced Commission reports. We also request that GAO examine why the departments may have failed to implement certain changes in response to the findings or applicable recommendations in the reports and assess the efficacy of any alternative approaches adopted by each agency.

¹ Commission on Wartime Contracting in Iraq and Afghanistan, Special Report 4, Iraq – A forgotten mission? (March 1, 2011), Special Report 5, Sustainability: Hidden costs risk new waste (June 3, 2011), and Final Report to Congress, Transforming Wartime Contracting: Controlling costs, reducing risks (Aug. 31, 2011).

The Honorable Gene Dodaro
