

Loren Young Biography

Loren Young is the Chairman of the Richland County Commissioners. Mr. Young was raised and continues to live, west of Fairview, on the Young family homestead started in 1906. He and his wife Jacklyn have two married children and three grandchildren. He is a 4th generation agricultural producer, farming for over 40 years with his father and now his son, Dan.

Loren served on numerous boards and committees in Richland County prior to running for the Commissioner seat.

Along with Loren's position as Commissioner he serves on the Montana Oil, Gas and Coal Counties Board.

Testimony

Mr. Young will speak to the following items in respect to the Commissioner office:

Infrastructure

Roads

Traffic

Accidents

Dust Suppression

Deterioration of roads

Sewer and water

Housing

County Employees

Work Force

Bidding for the same employee against the oil field

Health and Public Safety