9 such term in section 210G(k)(3) of the Homeland
10 Security Act of 2002 (6 U.S.C. 124n(k)(3)).

11 (b) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days after the 12 date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Home-13 land Security shall work with the Attorney General, the 14 Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration,
15 and the Secretary of Defense to develop a strategy for cre-
16 ating a unified posture on counter-unmanned aircraft sys-
17 tems (referred to in this section as “C-UAS”) capabilities
18 and protections at—

19 (1) covered facilities or assets along inter-
20 national borders of the United States; and

21 (2) any other border-adjacent covered facilities
22 or assets at which such capabilities maybe utilized
23 under Federal law.

1 (c) ELEMENTS.—The strategy required to be devel-
2 oped under subsection (b) shall include the following ele-
3 ments:

4 (1) An examination of C-UAS capabilities at 5 covered facilities or assets along the border, or such 6 other border-adjacent covered facilities or assets at 7 which such capabilities may be utilized under Fed-
8 eral law, and their usage to detect or mitigate cred-
9 ible threats to homeland security, including the fa-
10 cilitation of illicit activities, or for other purposes au-
11 thorized by law.

12 (2) An examination of efforts to protect privacy
13 and civil liberties in the context of C-UAS oper-
14 ations, including with respect to impacts on border
15 communities and protections of the First and 16 Fourth Amendments to the United States Constitu-
17 tion.

19 methods, including drone operators and artificial in-
20 telligence equipment, and relevant due process con-
21 siderations.

22 (4) An assessment of the availability and inter-
23 operability of C-UAS detection and mitigation tech-
24 nology.

1           (5) An assessment of the training, including 2           training relating to the protection of privacy and 3           civil liberties, required for successful operation of C-4           UAS detection and mitigation technology.

5           (6) An assessment of specific methods of oper-
6           ability for deployment and recommendations for ad-
7           ditional resources needed.

8           (7) An assessment of interagency research and 9           development efforts, including the potential for ex-
10          panding such efforts.

11          (d) SUBMISSION TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 180
12          days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Sec-
13          retary of Homeland Security shall submit the strategy de-14          veloped pursuant to subsection (b) to the appropriate con-
15          gressional committees.

16          (e) ANNUAL REPORT.—Not later than 180 days after 17          the date of the enactment of this Act, and annually there-
18          after for the following 7 years, the Secretary of Homeland
19          Security, the Attorney General, the Administrator of the 20          Federal Aviation Administration, and the Secretary of De-21          fense shall jointly submit a report to the appropriate con-22          gressional committees that describes—

23                 (1) the resources necessary to carry out the 24                 strategy developed pursuant to subsection (b); and

- 1 (2) any significant developments relating to the
- 2 elements described in subsection (c).
